MISSION STATEMENT

We inspire hope in low-income and first generation students to plan for, pursue and achieve higher education. Then we provide detailed guidance and mentoring so they can achieve this goal.

TYPICAL STUDENT

Bright, academically qualified, low-income student who is the first in their family to pursue a university education.

PROGRAMS OFFERED

College Dream Team Program

We provide comprehensive and detailed college admissions and career planning guidance and mentoring to academically qualified low-income, first generation students starting in 9th grade and assisting these students all throughout all of high school and the college years. Services include frequent workshops, individual meetings, outreach to families, 4-year college application assistance, SAT/ACT prep., academic support and financial aid guidance.

When program meets: All year long, mostly during school hours

Commitment: 4-6 hours per month - more in 12th grade

Location: Mostly on the San Rafael High School campus
